

PRIDE - Professionals in Doctoral Education

PRIDE | Professionals in Doctoral Education

Insights into an Evolving Occupational Field

Allison O'Reilly | University of Vienna

ERACON, 16.05.2015

PRIDE - Professionals in Doctoral Education

PRIDE | Professionals in Doctoral Education:

Supporting skills development to better contribute to a European knowledge society

- Life Long Learning Project.
- Started in October 2013
- Consortium with 7 HEIs, 2 university Networks and one private public partnership organization
- Project leader: University of Vienna

PRIDE - Professionals in Doctoral Education

The Consortium:

PRIDE - Professionals in Doctoral Education

Main Aim:

Professionalize administrative staff in the area of doctoral education.

Characteristics of professional staff:

- an increase in the formal status of administrative positions
- an increase in the requirements for formal qualification and training to hold specific administrative positions
- growth and formalisation of networks

PRIDE - Professionals in Doctoral Education

Background

- significant changes within the framework of doctoral education
- institutional responsibility was recognized
- critical role of administrative staff in doctoral education disregarded
- PRIDE consortium decided to focus on this group who – as we think – has the potential to make a qualitative difference to doctoral education

PRIDE - Professionals in Doctoral Education

Background | HEI-Staff in general

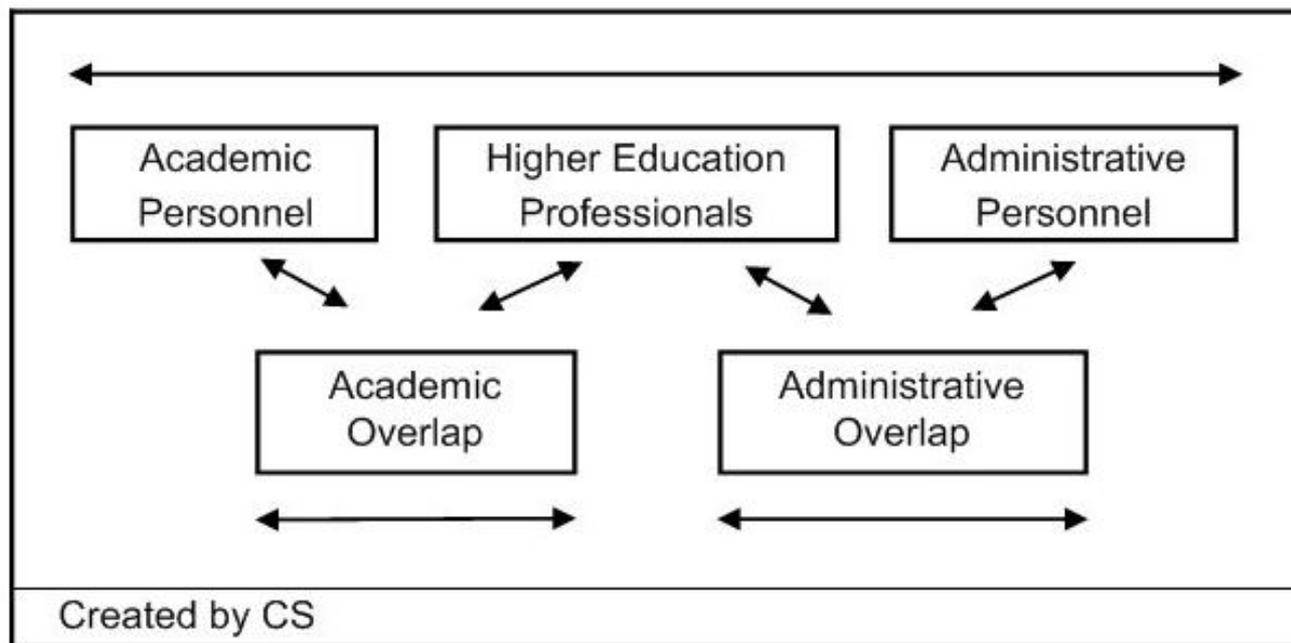

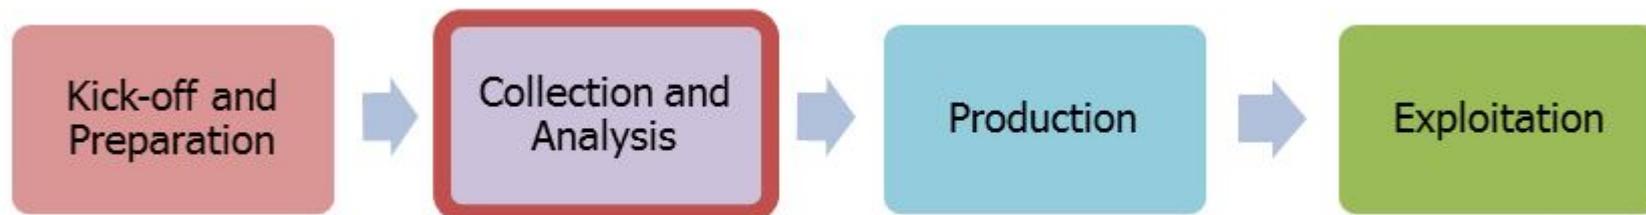

Figure 1: Overlap Model created by Christian Schneijderberg

PRIDE - Professionals in Doctoral Education

What has happened so far?

- Literature Review
- Survey 1 and 2 + Analysis
- Preparing Focus group interviews

PRIDE - Professionals in Doctoral Education

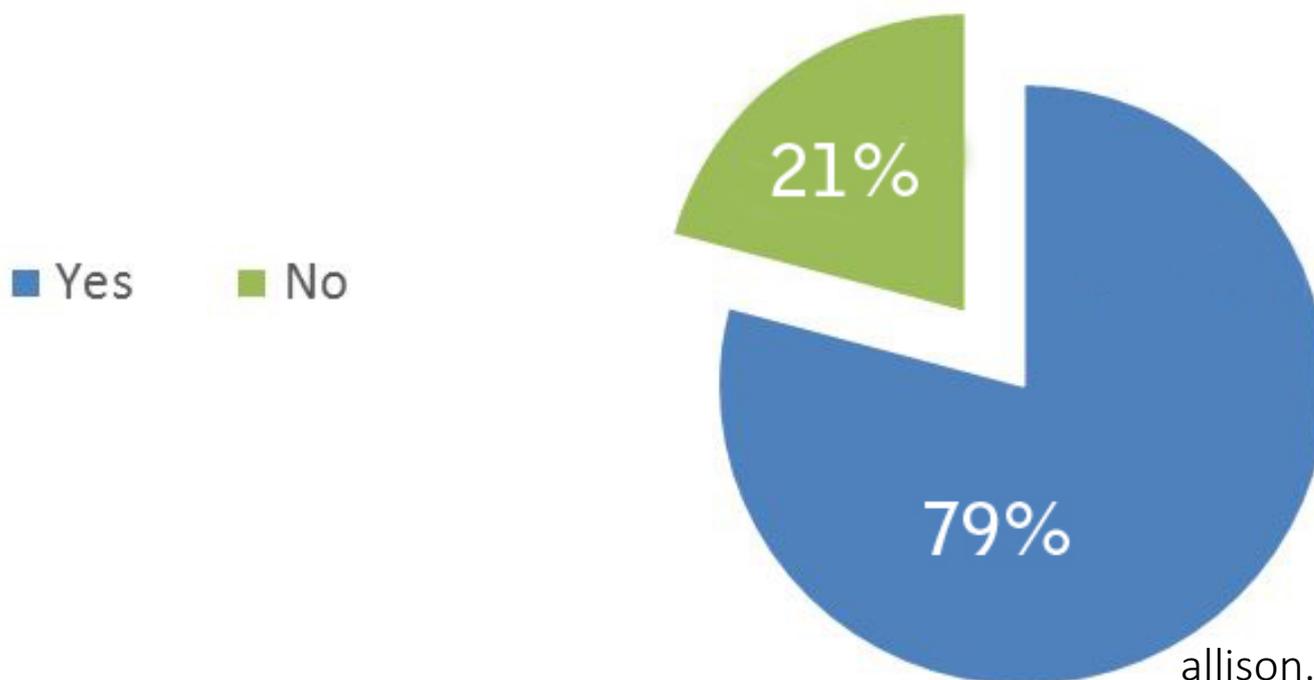

What has happened so far? | Survey 2

- Sent out to over 500 contacts in Autumn 2014
- 222 respondents (response rate: 33%)
- Answers from 29 countries/regions
- 135 participants indicated interest in further activities (personal interviews etc.)

PRIDE - Professionals in Doctoral Education

First Findings

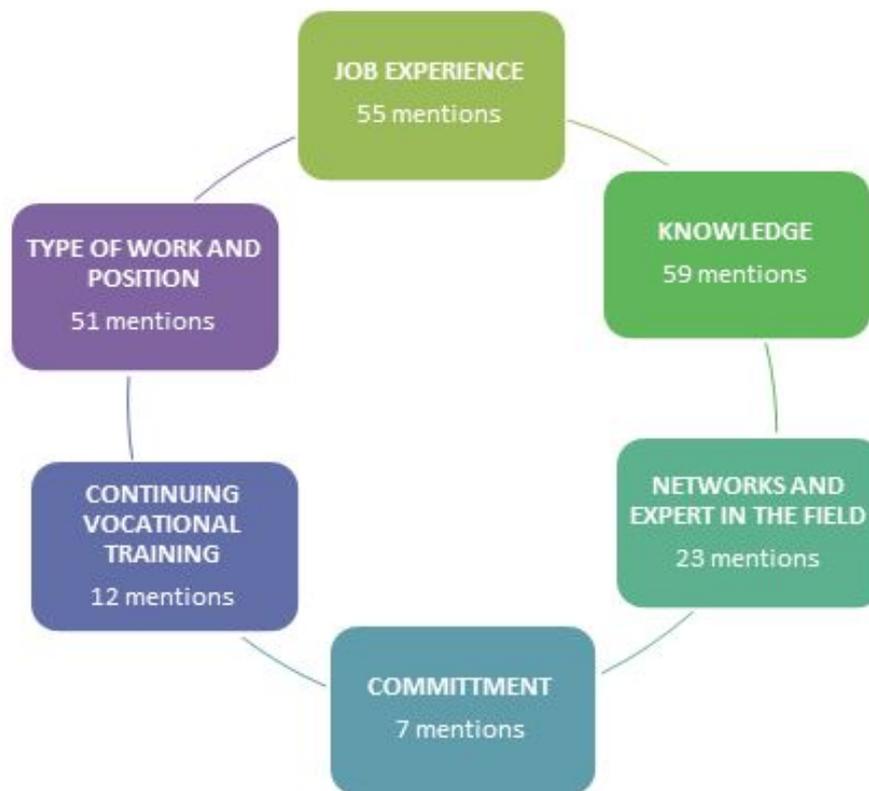

Would you define yourself as a professional in doctoral education?

PRIDE - Professionals in Doctoral Education

First Findings

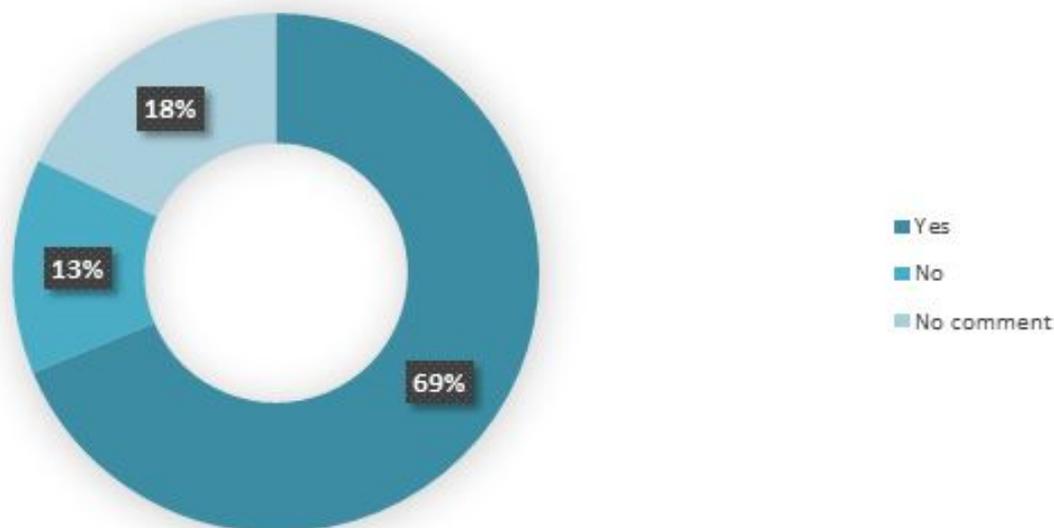

“What characterizes you as a professional in doctoral education, in your opinion?”

PRIDE - Professionals in Doctoral Education

First Findings

Think about your future career: Do you wish to stay in the higher education area in a non-academic position?

PRIDE - Professionals in Doctoral Education

What next?

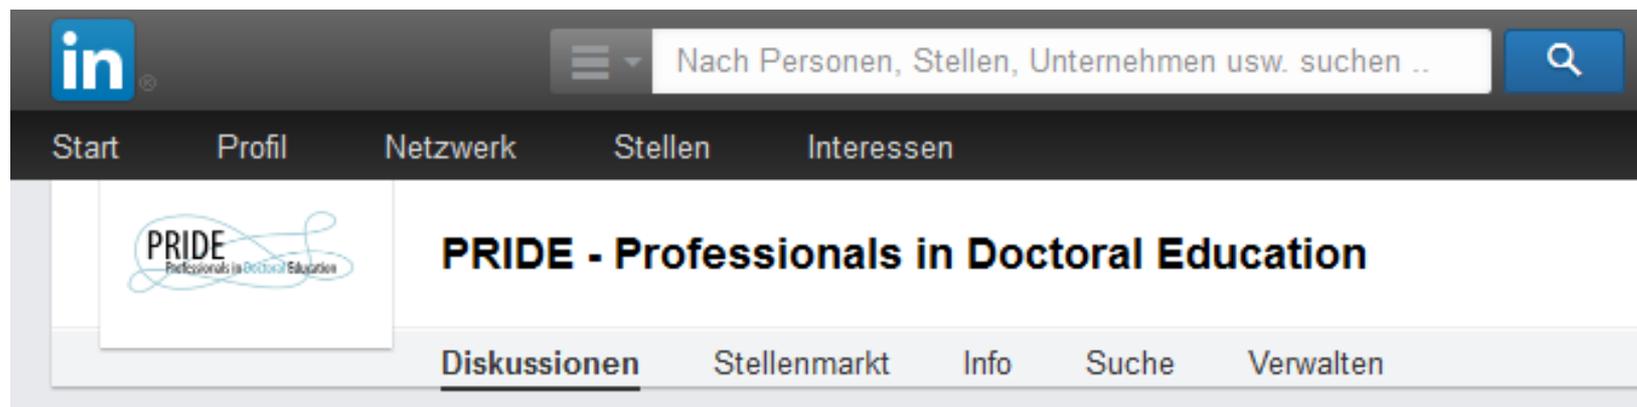

- Focus groups
- Publication of results
- Further dissemination
- Handbook
- Development of trainings
- Association

PRIDE - Professionals in Doctoral Education

More information

<http://www.pride-project.eu/>

LinkedIn:

The screenshot shows the LinkedIn interface for the PRIDE project. At the top left is the LinkedIn logo. To its right is a search bar with the text "Nach Personen, Stellen, Unternehmen usw. suchen .." and a magnifying glass icon. Below the search bar is a navigation menu with the following items: "Start", "Profil", "Netzwerk", "Stellen", and "Interessen". The main content area displays the profile name "PRIDE - Professionals in Doctoral Education" next to a profile picture that is a smaller version of the PRIDE logo. Below the profile name is a secondary navigation menu with the following items: "Diskussionen", "Stellenmarkt", "Info", "Suche", and "Verwalten".

PRIDE - Professionals in Doctoral Education

Questions

- How does the IRO community see this in their area?
- Do you feel recognized/established as professionals?